In Our Prayers:

Our prayers requests are from the Fifth Grade Class. This upcoming week please add these requests to your daily prayer time:

- † Bless all of our soldiers especially Hayley Whitcomb.
- † Bless our Hearts for Jesus offerings, may it help to give them gardens.
- † Grant healing to all those who are sick.
- † Bless Mrs. Glessing that her injury heals quickly and the she is without pain.

"Contrast of the Passion Narrative" is this year's Lenten series. Next week's topic will be "Pilate: God's Son, Found Innocent, Yet Punished." Services are at 1:30 and 7:00 p.m. Soup Supper is served from 5:00-6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The youth will be serving Chicken Noodle or Cheese Soup. A free will offering will be taken.

Used Book Sale / Fundraiser: St. James School would like to try having a used book sale fundraiser that would coincide with our PTL Dinner on Sunday, April 18. Fro the next few weeks we will be accepting book donations from any families within our church, school, or community. Here is a guideline of the type of books we are accepting:

- books in good to excellent condition
 - hard or soft cover books
 - books such as sports, children's, cookbooks, adult, Christian, etc...
 - No magazines (including no National Geographics)
 - No encyclopedias or reference books older than 2000
- Donated books can be dropped off at the school or church offices. Please call if there are any questions.

Chicken Pox: Please be aware that we have had students out with the chicken pox in the second grade and Kindergarten classrooms in the past couple of weeks. If you have any concerns or questions please contact the school office or our school nurse: Jolie Holland at 763-219-2469.

Mayer Lutheran High School have you every wondered what it would be like to go back in time? Well you can find out when Mayer Lutheran High School performs "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court." This play, written by John G Fuller, is based on Mark Twain's novel. In this production, Hank Bennett, (Dan Kassen) a young engineer just out of college, is knocked out while working on one of his projects. When he awakes, he finds himself in the Court of King Arthur (Spencer Biermann) and his Queen (Marie Landskroener), and from this point on, he sets about to modernize the kingdom of Camelot. Come and see how Hank becomes entangled in the politics of the court. Final performance at the Mayer Lutheran Fine Arts Center will be Sunday, February 28, at 2 p.m. General admission tickets will be available at the door, adults $7 and students $5.

Prayer Requests Wanted: A Prayer Request Box is in the School Office for anyone to submit their prayer requests. Moms meet regularly to pray for our school, staff, and students. If you would like to know more about the praying moms, contact Janice Schoenfeld at (320) 543-3148.

Employment Opportunity: Lutheran High Mayeris seeking a part time Woodworking / Shop teacher. Interested individuals can contact Kevin Wilaby, Principal about the position (952-657-2251 x317) or send their resume to (kwilaby@lhsmayer.org)

Verse of the Month:

"Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.

Philippians 4:8

Parent's Prayer:

Dear Almighty and Everlasting God, may my children burst forth in praise to You. Amen.
~ Psalm 150:6 ~

Thanks! A huge "Thank You!" to everyone that attended the scrapbooking event on Saturday. It was a wonderful day! It couldn't have happened without all those who provided food & prizes and also those who helped with setup and clean up.
